

Patrick Hartnett

I think the WestRock Tacoma Wood Chip Screening project is a good project for the city as it helps keep the company competitive and helps to ensure that 400 good family wage jobs stay in the city. The mill also is a provider of green energy. The Mill has been a fixture in Tacoma and has been moving forward with many projects to reduce the environmental impact of the Mill.

I support the WestRock Tacoma Wood Chip Screening Project.