

Dorothy Phillimore

Toxins and particulates are expected to increase, decreasing air quality. I am not in favor of this project unless the dust collection system can be better than the one WestRock mill is proposing to use for its conveyor system.