

Stacy Oaks

We need to stop letting these corporations continue to increase emissions and toxins. Our health and children's future are more important than increasing the monetary profits of the few.

We are in a crisis and better start acting like it.