

Sandra Mullis

I can't believe what this company is doing is actually legal. Vashon Island has already gone through a horrible, and expensive cleanup paid for by ASARCO.

Vashonites have already been experiencing probably poisonous fumes from Westrock. We don't want this to continue. I hope the Department of Ecology will be honestly looking into this proposal.