

Phil Ritter

I urge the Department of Ecology to deny approval to this proposed project.

Expansion of a methane gas boiler to generate electricity for sale is contrary to public policy of reducing Greenhouse Gas Emissions, which will be increased upstream as a result of methane leaks in the production and transportation and at the site by combustion.