

Michael Garrity

Please reject this application for expansion. Even if new emissions from this facility are relatively small, the air quality in the vicinity is already poor, and beyond its reasonable capacity for additional pollutants. In addition, new energy needs should be met from renewables and battery storage rather than fossil fuels.

Thank you for your consideration.