

Ronald Davis

Our water must be taken seriously! The companies involved should be taking full responsibility for making our town whole in a safe and quick manner.

Option B with C sound like the better alternatives for what is presented.

If there are better options that appear in the future, they should be presented and the companies in question should pay for that as well.

Messing with Spokane's water is dangerous for us all! Please comment and tell them this will not stand!