

David Helm

Before any decision is made regarding this toxic waste a public hearing needs to be held; and heeded. There have been way to many clean up decisions based on the cheapest, least effective methods.