

Diane Emerson

My comment concerns this statement: "The proposed cleanup action (Alternative 5) involves limited soil and vegetation removal"

It is not perfectly clear how the vegetation is to be removed. If the removal includes herbicides, I strongly oppose that method. There are already enough toxics in the soil here, without adding more. The vegetation removal method should be physical removal only.