

gary smith

Stop making new rules that are only going to make the cost of fuel higher. With the extreme taxes and regs we already have, costs in this state are already way beyond what a retired person can afford to pay.