

Don Steinke

After your hearing in Vancouver last week, a River Captain told me that it is nearly impossible to apply the brakes on a ship until it slows to 9 knots.
By brakes, I mean reversing the engine.