

Ryan West

I urge the Department of Ecology to require tighter regulations and spill response plans for the tar sands oil being transported through our state. Our waterways are already under pressure from the increased temperatures in the summer. A disaster is inevitable if action is not taken so I urge you to require these companies gambling with our state's environment to require full safety contingencies to prevent spills. Thank you.