

Marvin Lambrecht

My two concerns have to do with potential health effects and air quality.

I would request that the Department review relevant scientific information and seek opinion from independent experts before rendering a decision.

Safety and clean air should be the standard used as the standard for decisions.

Thank You Marvin Lambrecht