

Phyllis J Kardos

Through the scoping process PacWest needs to be held accountable for identifying every point source of fugitive and regulated emissions at the proposed silicon metal smelter. The pollution sources need to be identified along with the points of emissions, plus the mitigation plan to reduce the pollutants.