

Phyllis J. Kardos

I have a sincere concern about covering 188 acres of forestland with an impervious ground cover of concrete and steel. This covering would take forest land out of production, prevent the rain and snow cycle of infiltrating the groundwater system, which sits right under or in very close proximity to the intended silicon smelter project.