

Denise Teeple

Here is a link pertaining to the Western Toad. it covers there environmental needs to survive. Nowhere in this information does it include a smelter. Please study the effects of ALL the pollutants that could potentially be coming from the smelter on the Western Toad. They require fresh, clean, pollutant free water and soil to survive. Study all emissions affects for at least a year.