

Anita Herrick

We moved here from a polluted air environment due to my husband's breathing difficulties. How can this project be mitigated in a way that assures my husband will not suffer even more damage to his lungs?