

Timothy Anderson

I am quite concerned that the following questions must be included in the scoping process.

Transparency:

Why are we dealing with a moving target and tasked with formulating precise questions based on abstract projections and a constantly revised project?

Just today we learn of new emissions projections, the day before the scoping period is to end. This should be grounds for Dept of Ecology to grant an immediate extension to the scoping process comment period.