

Ann Krane

Companies should have the burden of proof before risking health problems for air or water for humans such a breathing silicone!