

Anonymous Anonymous

I have scleroderma and I don't think people realize the things we do to our land forest wildlife impact our fragile human bodies plants like this don't realize the hard impact they cause by ppolluting small poor towns this is a huge wildlife area and should be kept as preserved as possible find land in an area that is more barren so your plant impact is less destructive to the eenviornment we all share and enjoy.