

Michael S.

Talk about the jobs for the community. How many of the projected 150 jobs will be filled from outside the community? Of those jobs available to those within the community, how many will be entry level? As manufacturing becomes more automated, what percentage of the jobs available are projected to be replaced by robotics and other forms of automation.