

Anonymous Anonymous

I have a very simple and basic concern.

One cannot raise healthy children if the water, ground and the very air that they breathe is polluted.

There is no reason in the world to risk the health of generations of children to come by allowing this polluting smelter to be constructed.