

Anonymous Anonymous

Why is this being considered so close to a community- proximity to schools, churches and homes? How will the air be protected? How will the water be protected? When there are such risks involved, why would a community be considered for this? How can we best protect ourselves from this and other environmental threats?