

Margaret Underwood

I want the EIS to include comprehensive data on noxious fumes emitted from silicon smelters. Please review all materials that will be used and the possible combinations of said materials as well as the exposure of materials to the weather and tell us what fume types are possible. Please describe how fumes spread/dissipate. include method of travel, how far, how long, how frequent. What mitigation is possible?