

Phil Thompson

I will live in the waist cloud of the smelter. I cannot believe in this day and age there is even consideration building a "coal powered" plant of any sort. Simple as that. It's dirty, it cannot be cleaned or made safe for the environment or the people. This is our home, if Canada wants to continue destroying their environment they should build it there. We do not want it.