

Jim Chandler

On the subject of particulate emissions, what is the best available technology to capture particulate emissions down to and including PM2.5? And a follow up question: Knowing that baghouses and electrostatic filters need to be shut down for maintenance, how much redundancy in filtering is planned for this project? I ask about redundancy because, according to PacWest, the furnaces will be running constantly--24/7/365.