

Anna Boswell

I oppose the Silicon Smelter because I believe the science behind the negative health and environmental impacts it will have on our community. This is a step backwards for the country's commitment to clean energy and conservation.