

Susan Brown

Have any of you even been to this region? If so, how in good conscience can you think putting a smelter here is a good idea? What do you plan to tell the people that live here, when our air quality is something we can taste and see? Who will pay for the road damages in IDAHO due to the MANY trucks that will be providing coal to the Smelter?