

Black Horse Ranch

Black Horse Ranch strongly supports the construction of more metal refining infrastructure in the NW. Many of companies who have ore to process are no longer able to do so due to the lack of smelting options in the area. This project will put WA and ID on a path towards heavy industry independence and provide cheap solar panels for NW residents. The area also needs jobs, and this project is a winner for job creation and area business development!