

Geoffry Jones

As a Family Physician living and working in Newport, WA, I am very concerned about the environmental impact from this smelter. Please investigate impacts on groundwater, airquality, noise pollution and traffic from this smelter. I recognize that our biggest health threat in this region is poverty; and this could go a long way to alleviating that. However, we need to know the environmental impacts so we can decide if the economic impacts will offset the ecological risks.