

Phyllis J. Kardos

Department of Ecology needs to consider and study all construction and emission sources in the project area and all construction emission sources outside of the construction area and the emission effects on the environment and the people. How will the Construction of the proposed silicon metal smelter effect traffic patterns; rail traffic waits; noise, vibrations, effects on folks with PTSD?