

Roger Lindsay

As a former outfitter and guide, leading river kayak trips, backpacking and back country skiing. My customers would come here for the beauty of the mountains and the valley. We don't have pollution in this area, so any man made pollution would be a huge detriment to all of north Idaho. Please, consider every ones well being in this matter. The future of Idaho is in your hands. Thank You