

Donna Haggerty

My concerns involve the health effects on our community.

Not only physical health effects, which are considerable, but those on our environment. Many of us have invested our life savings, or worked tirelessly to live in this beautiful, pristine area. A smelter would wreck havoc on our water quality, air, forests and wildlife.

Why is this being built here?

We do not want it here.

Donna Haggerty's