

jim kauffman

not one example of where a smelter has operated has been shown not to be an environmental disaster. What price can you place on clean water and air? I have lived in n Idaho for 67 years worked paid my bills paid my taxes stayed out of the law system. If this smelter is allowed someone else can take my place I will sell out and vote with my feet