

Taggart Jacklin

During your review of this proposed facility, please include any potential impact on the waterfowl nesting and brooding area in and surrounding Calispell Lake. It is an important part of the local ecology and must be protected. It is located approximately 14 miles NW of the proposed project site.