

Bernard Baldwin

Aside from the fact that the property that has been purchased for the site of the smelter was done illegally, why is it that the smelter will not be located in the same nation, (Canada), as where the smelter operators are located and what assurance can be given that no hazardous toxins, (none, zero) will be released into the atmosphere to affect the health and welfare of the surrounding area residents and ecology?