

Jan wasserburger

Take a hard look at what happened in SMELTERVILLE, Id. Lives ruined, company jobs, people who can't read due to heavy metal poisoning, and a huge mess to clean up paid for by citizens. Various shell companies assured escape from fiscal responsibility. Even now, because we have clean air we would be subject to different 'exhaust' standards. This corporation is not at all forthcoming with facts. The negative consequences far outweigh the positive.