

James Rehrmann

I wish to make a comment regarding the implementation of the state's Cap and Invest program.

Overall the program must

- ramp up requirements to cap emissions significantly and in a timely manner - more sooner is better
- provide for flexibility in the program to make adjustments as learning takes place.
- push supplementary programs - like electric vehicle charging infrastructure - that enable the planned pace of emissions reductions.

Thanks

Jim Rehrmann