

Dorothy Hall

I am a senior woman who, many years ago, had the benefit of breathing cleaner air than it is today. I worry that my son and granddaughters will have to deal with more polluted air in the future. I strongly support the proposed rule for the Climate Commitment Act Program.