

Annie Phillips

The rule must be strengthened to ensure benefits to overburdened communities are realized; the Tribes are properly consulted; the carbon market functions with transparency and integrity; and there is adequate information to guide adapt to new conditions as expedient.