

Sherry Martin

We simply cannot afford anymore taxes! Someone has to be the adult in the room and say NO! This does absolutely nothing for the environment and will only continue to take money from Washington families.