

Chana LaChapelle

$500 million is a lot that can go to stopping fentanyl from coming into this state. It's a lot for fixing the roads, highways, and bridges. It's a lot to go toward building more parks and recreation areas and not apartment complexes. It's a lot to go toward family neighborhoods and safe family homes with yards and space away from the cities.