

Richard Donnelly

I support the Climate Solutions recommendations for regulations that will take into account poor and minority communities. Also, I would prefer an increased benefit for communities and individuals to implement solar and to keep up with technology advances in photovoltaic efficiency and storage.