

Susan Finley

I believe that the proposed Clean Fuel Standard represents the bare minimum we need for a safe future. Please pursue this and beyond, and give this transition priority over "profits" and "savings" for both energy providers and energy users. If we don't prioritize our future, there won't be one.