

SUSAN ALLEN

I am against the clean fuels and program rule. We do not need more legislation regarding clean air and climate change. Rather we need less legislation and taxation to ensure that farmers and truckers can transport food affordably and efficiently and not continue to burden those industries. Come visit Eastern WA do not have ANY and I mean any issues with clean air. In the end, it is the WA State consumer who will be impacted by this unnecessary legislaton.