

Stephan Classen

I appreciate the efforts to make fuel use cleaner, and would advocate that we need it to focus on more public transit, more lightrail and buses, more rideshare options, and reduce our traffic in Western WA. Climate change is the challenge of our lifetimes, and these actions need to push towards community use and public transit as much as individual cars fuel!