

Judy Hallisey

I support the Clean Fuels Standard. We need to do more to reduce carbon emissions to combat climate change, at a faster pace. The time period for fossil fuel industry to comply should be sooner than proposed; these industries have had ample time already to begin cleaning up their emissions. Also please ensure cleaner air begins in our lower income and minority population areas first.