

City of Everett, WA

The application process, as currently listed in the proposed rule, to enter the program is archaic and vague. Recommend an online form be created that can be with blanks for required information that can be filled in electronically and e-signed by the applicable authorized individual. Having to mail or scan/email a form will cause delays in processing and/or possibly lost applications.