

Max Gerloff

How about we hold these countless propeller planes that fly out of Paine Field/Everett on an hourly/daily basis? They fly enormous hours just hovering around 250 ft. above neighborhoods and schools that are all around Paine Field. I bet in one day,,, they spew more toxic gases and CO2 than my car produces in two years!!!!

Always looking at autos,,,why not shift to other significant sources of pollution making significant changes?