

Sara Bhakti

Re: Rule making for transportation in Washington State

Protecting the environment is my top priority.

I urge the strongest clean car and clean transportation regulations for vehicles in Washington State - good for the environment, good for human health and the health of other life forms. Also good for our economy: encouraging green energy solutions, reducing healthcare costs due to asthma.

Thank you for the opportunity to comment.